RIGHT OFF THE TREES

Nearly all the fruit that comes to the market is picked while green and allowed to ripen on the way. Of course such fruit never has the delicious flavor of that which is ripened in nature's manner. For this reason is really superior in flavor and healthfulness to any of the fresh fruits that come from nearby orchards during the few days of the fruit season.

THE ROYAL SCARLET BRAND

ROYAL SCARLET FRUITS are gathered and put up at the orchards the very day they are ripe, and the flavor that nature alone can give is preserved.

Royal Scarlet stands for the best in the Canned Goods line.

PETERS ADDS A HUNDRED TO BURGOYNE'S THOUSAND.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE CITY OFFICIALS AND OTHERS TO HUSTLE FOR THE OTHER $3900.

Billy Peters says that it is pure selfishness that actuates Commodore Burgoyne. He wants his neighbors to pay for good roads on which to exploit his new Stearns Sixty.

"Anyhow," says Billy, "the old man ought to get something; he has always been a good giver, and this is the first time that he has ever asked for anything. Now is the time for his friends to show their hands. Put me down for a hundred."

"The man on the Street" says that it is now up to the Mayor and council to make good Commodore Burgoyne's thousand dollar check by employing every minute of their time between now and December 31 in persuading their constituents to help out an impoverished city treasury.

Thousand dollar checks, like angel's visits, don't knock at our door every day.

It is no argument to say that the time is short. Twenty-four hours ought to be amply sufficient to raise $4,000 if it can be raised.

If the city officials want to endeavor themselves to the people now is the time to compel their love.

It is to be hoped that the spirit of Christmas is only sleeping, and that long before the time expires every citizen will contribute something to this laudable project.

Our streets are rotten.

Don't let that thousand dollars go a begging.

Make it good.

Contributions should be sent to the Daily News.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS UNDER WAY AT LA TERRE DE JEU.

C. G. Burgoyne has added fifty feet to the recently constructed dock at his peninsula place, La Terre de Jeu. He also has a force of men clearing up a strip 300 feet wide from river to ocean and Ballough & Melton are engaged to put down a two inch well on the south side of the dock, near shore.

LONG ISLANDER HAS SUCCESS.

Ernest Kreitzberg, with his guide, John Bennett, were out again Saturday and succeeded in bringing down another fine buck. Besides this they got a wild turkey, several quail, a fox tail squirrel and some other game. Mr. Kreitzberg is fast gaining the record for crack shooting in this locality.

CALL THE COMMODORE'S BLUFF!

Now is the time!

Don't be a laggard in a good cause!

Don't let that thousand dollars find its way back into Commodore Burgoyne's strong box by default.

... you do you will wade in slush all winter.

There is not an available dollar in the City treasury for the streets.

"The Lord loveth a quick as well as a cheerful giver."

Call the Commodore's bluff and call it quickly.

No one will shout louder than the Commodore if you call it.

SERIOUS CONFLAGRATION NARROWLY AVERTED.

HANKINS' SHOW WINDOW CATCHES ON FIRE — ONE OF THE CLERKS SERIOUSLY BURNED.

Charles Heffner, chief clerk at Hankins' drug store, is in the hospital badly burned, and M. A. Shecut, who was assisting him in arranging a window display, is slightly burned, as the result of a fire Tuesday night shortly after nine o'clock.

The two were arranging a display in the south window of the drug store using cotton as part of the decoration. Somehow a match was dropped in the cotton and one of the other decorators stepped on it. Quick as tongue can tell the entire window was ablaze and both gentlemen were overcome. They succeeded in escaping from the enclosure but not before Mr. Heffner was so badly burned that he will be laid up for several weeks.

The fire was extinguished, but the damage to goods and fixtures amount to about fifty dollars.

THE CAT WAS HUNGRY WHEN IT CAME BACK.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Smith have a beautiful angora cat, which is a great household pet, and will follow any member of the family around with the fidelity of a guard dog. Last Saturday Mr. Smith had occasion to go into an outhouse in the rear of the lot, and the cat which had followed him was locked in, accidentally. The cat was missed, of course, and it was at first thought he was visiting somewhere in the neighborhood, but as his absence was prolonged his owners began to think that some adverse fate had befallen him. Yesterday morning Mr. Smith again had occasion to go to the store room and found the cat—not much the worse for the enforced fast, but very thirsty and quite willing to partake of the food that was offered him.

PROVERBIAL HAPPY PARTY LA TERRE DE JEU SUNDAY.

Another proverbially happy party accompanied Commodore Burgoyne on his yacht Sweetheart Sunday. The start was made from the boat house as usual, going down the river and back to La Terre de Jeu, the commodore's beautiful pavilion on the west bank of the Halifax, where lunch was served to the famishing party, and to which all did ample justice. The party consisted of:

Dr. G. A. Klock, Geo. H. Ludwig, Dr. F. H. Houghton, J. D. Maley, Col. C. M. Bingham, H. C. Thompson, Bert Thompson, Dr. E. L. Stewart, Capt. C. A. Young, Theo. Sengstak, M. B. Aultman, W. M. Hankins, Dr. C. DeW. Ake, F. W. Pope, L. Adler, Chas. F. Burgman, Geo. H. Clark, Mayor E. W. Greene, Harry Hartshorn, T. E. Fitzgerald and the genial host, Commodore Burgoyne.

The Congregational Church will have their Christmas exercises Christmas night at the church. A tree and songs and recitations by the Sunday School children will make up a good program.

E. Fairfax Ludlow, who last season was a member of the Daily News force, arrived Sunday night from Urbana, Ohio, and joined his mother, Mrs. Montana S. Ludlow, at the Parkinson, of which she is owner and proprietor. Fairfax has a host of friends in Daytona who will rejoice in his return.

Miss Hazel Meyers has accepted a position in the mailing department of the Daily News.

DRILL RECOVERED FROM WELL SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

LARGE FLOW SECURED MONDAY AFTERNOON AT A DEPTH OF 240 FEET, GIVING A HEAD OF TWELVE INCHES.

Henry Van Dorn Saturday recovered the drill and rod lost several days before in the well at the city water-works, which he has been drilling to a greater depth.

Work was continued on the well Monday, and in the afternoon, when Mr. Van Dorn was about ready to call off work for the day, with a head of 5 1/2 inches, they cut through the strata of hard rock in which they had been drilling and more than doubled the flow, securing a head of 12 inches at a depth of 240 feet. This splendid stream is only excelled by one other well in the city, that of H. H. Hoene on North Ridgewood avenue, put down by Mr. Van Dorn some time ago. Mr. Hoene's well has a head of 18 inches.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gove arrived Saturday night from Nahant, Mass., and will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Gove and family. Mr. Gove is an older brother of S. H. Gove and the two have not met in over twenty years.

Christmas services were held in the First Baptist Sunday morning. There was an anthem by the choir and solo by Mrs. Maretha Brooks, of Daytona Beach. Rev. A. L. Abercrombie, pastor in charge, delivered a sermon appropriate to the season.

D. McLaren left Saturday afternoon for Cincinnati.

COMMODORE F. D. HUGHES DIES AT MAITLAND.

WAS WELL KNOWN IN DAYTONA WHERE HE HAS SPENT MANY WINTERS.

The death of Commodore F. D. Hughes, of New York, last Friday night, was learned here Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes who were spending the winter at Princess Islena, Seabreeze, had gone over to Maitland on a two weeks' visit with his sister, and expected to return here shortly. He was attacked at Orlando, and died at his sister's home at Maitland, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have spent the three winters past at Seabreeze. He was an enthusiastic automobilist and he and his car were familiar figures on all the auto roads in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes had many friends here to whom his death comes as a great shock.

D. S. Hall, of Mechanicsburg, Ill., arrived Friday afternoon to spend the season here as usual. He says that when he left home there was five or six inches of snow and zero weather. Mr. Hall is a brother of Wm. Hall, who owns a winter home on North

Mrs. F. M. Davison and daughter, Mrs. C. M. Brower, returned Sunday from Cincinnati, Ohio, where they have been for several weeks past. Mrs. Brower is very much improved in health.

George Walton was at home from New Smyrna over Sunday.

It is not always the longest stocking that has the largest stuffing.

Sheldon Swope, who regularly spends his winters in Daytona, has arrived from Terra Haute, Ind., and is at the Despland.
